

ALLIANCE HOCKEY

Right of Choice Declaration

Pursuant to ALLIANCE HOCKEY Regulations, players that are requesting to declare "Right of Choice" eligibility are required to complete the following form to establish a home centre and not a AAA Zone. The following form must be completed in full prior to permission being granted for the player to participate in ALLIANCE HOCKEY. Alliance Hockey sees participation in an Association as having exercised a Right of Choice. A second Right of Choice is at the sole discretion of the current association. ALLIANCE HOCKEY will determine the eligibility based on the information below and other applicable factors. Please refer to Rule 11, Player Eligibility on page 123 of the Alliance Handbook.
